

A study on contemporary Japanese architectural design : ephemeral space and fragmented urbanity

Zgheib, Hani

<https://doi.org/10.11501/3181877>

出版情報 : 九州芸術工科大学, 2000, 博士 (工学), 課程博士
バージョン :
権利関係 :

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

First of all, I would like to thank my professor, Dr. Hiroshi Katano, whose valuable guidance was most essential in my course and also in my stay in Japan. I thank him for his patience and care.

My many thanks go also to my Japanese colleagues in the Katano Studio at the Kyushu Institute of Design. Their technical help, kindness and patience were a great support during the 'deadline crisis'.

Mr. Mitsuo Tsuda introduced me to the special society of the Daikoku Nagare in the Hakata Gion Yamakasa festival in Fukuoka. The experience was maybe the most intense during my stay in Japan. I thank him for his effort and devotion, and also Mr. Hidaka for his valuable guidance.

Finally, my special love and appreciation go to my parents, Sami and Yvette, who, although wanted me to stay close to them, encouraged me to go on my 'Japanese adventure', so far away, knowing what is best for me.